

Dear Sir/Madam:

It has come to my attention that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. This is in clear violation of FAA regulations. Further, it is an example of the grave dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I want their attempt to hijack the airwaves for political and therefore financial gain stopped. As an American citizen interested in the continued democracy of our country I do not want "Stolen Honor" aired.

Finally, Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Tavis Dockwiller
